1. _____Natalie: Travelling is so exciting! Personally, I like challenging myself when I am in a foreign country! I love having adventures and doing a lot of different activities! Mountain climbing, bungee jumping, canoeing, trekking, surfing, and more. I like going to strange places and doing all kind of things: walk the Great Wall in China[2], scuba dive in the Polynesia, surf in Australia or ride a camel in Egypt[5]! Here are the photos!

2. _____Mia: Travelling is the best way to enjoy your free time. For me, it means going abroad and rest. New places, new people, new lifestyles. Are you sick and tired of everything? Go to a place where nobody knows you, that's the best way to forget all your troubles. It's your opportunity to enjoy life and be yourself. Imagine to sunbathe in the Caribbean[1]. You inhale the fresh ocean air, watch the blue-green waves, hear the cries of the sea gulls. Isn't that paradise?

3. _____Rose: Well, I think that different people travel for many reasons. For me, travelling is a wonderful opportunity to experience other ways of life and cultures. I travel to know new lands, people, cultures. It's a good opportunity to learn about a country's history and traditions. I like seeing how other people live, what they do, what they eat and what they believe in. You can explore Machu Pichu[6], see Paris[7] from the top of the Eiffel Tower, or visit museums in New York[8]. It's incredible!

Writing. Cover letter.

1) Read Ruth's cover letter, then match the informal phrases in bold in her letter with the formal phrases below.

Dear Sir/Madam,

1*) I want to apply for the job* of part time receptionist 2) that I read about in Daily Gazette on Tuesday, April 3.

I am in my final year of college, and I am considering a career as a hotel receptionist. 3) I just got a certificate in tourism and hotel management, and I feel that a summer job at your hotel 4) is a good idea for me.

Last summer I worked as a receptionist at my local hotel and as an animator in the evenings.

5) I think I'm hardworking and enthusiastic. I am also good at working with people.

6) Here's a copy of my resumé. 7) I can come for an interview at your convenience. 8) I can't wait to hear from you.

9) Best regards,
Ruth Boswell

_____ I look forward to your reply
_____ Yours faithfully
_____ I am writing to apply for the position
_____ Please find enclosed
_____ I consider myself to be

- formal greetings and endings Dear Sir/Madam→ Yours faithfully (when you don't know the name of the person you are writing to) Dear Mr./Mrs./Miss Smith→ Yours Sincerely (when you know the name of the person you are writing to)

Dear Sir /Madam,

Small talk.

Imagine you have just met with your friend. Work with your partner and talk about holiday and travel. Use the conversation starters below as an example.

Have you been on holiday this summer?
How did you travel?
I was in…. / The hotel was fantastic…../The journey was good/bad….
Where are you going on you next holiday?
I am planning to go to….

Job interview

Read the job advertisement for the part-time hotel receptionist position above, in writing activity 2. Imagine you are at the job interview and talking with the hotel manager. Work with your partner and complete the dialogue then act it out loud. Don't forget to flip turns.

Hotel manager: Good morning. I'm Mr. Jones

Applicant: _____

Hotel manager: You are applying for our job as a part-time hotel receptionist. Please tell me a little bit about yourself.

Applicant: _____

Hotel manager: OK. That's good. What is the strength that you have that can help you to do this job?

Applicant: _____

Hotel manager: Great. Why do you want to work here?

Applicant: _____

Hotel manager: Do you have any questions for me?

Applicant: _____

Hotel manager: It was so nice to meet you. We'll make phone calls tomorrow to let you know if you will get the job.

Applicant: _____
