

(Industrial mechanic B1)

Test - Answer the questions.

1. What basic hand tools do industrial mechanics have? Write down at least three of them.
.....
2. What does 'PPE' stand for?
Personal P..... E.....
3. What do you use the caliper for?
.....
4. Write down at least three technical skills that an industrial mechanic should have.
.....
5. What documents do you write when you are applying for a job?
.....
6. What personal details do you mention in your CV?
.....
7. Decide if this statement is true or false. You should start listing your most recent school/position/ qualification in your CV.
.....
8. How would you start the cover letter? Write down at least one sentence.
.....
9. How would you describe yourself in the cover letter? Write down at least one sentence.
.....
10. If you start the cover letter with 'Dear Mr Brown' what closing will you write?
.....
11. What would you answer to this question? 'Why would you like to get the position of industrial mechanic?'
.....
12. What power tools would you like to work with? Write down at least three of them.
.....
13. What can you see in factories that warn you about dangers/hazards?
.....
14. Why do we need safety signs in factories?
.....
15. What do you wear to protect your face when welding?
.....
16. What do you wear when you want to protect your feet in a factory?
.....
17. Why do we need safety guards for machines?
.....

Complete the sentences with a word. The first letter of the word is done.

18. F..... gases are dangerous because they might burn in some conditions.
19. This sign warns you about the s..... surface around the area where you might slip.
20. The s..... is a commercial iron that contains carbon.