Dear Mr Richardson,

I saw your advertisement in the last issue of Time magazine last week. I am interested in working for your company.

My name is Robert Wilson. I am 28 years old.

I believe I am suitable for this job because in my previous workplace I had to produce the mortar bed and mark out the base. I am good at marking out the base, loading the concrete. My manager was satisfied with me. I am reliable, hard-working and determined. I don't smoke. I love my trade, especially the scaffolding and masonry. I can install the lintel and place ground plates.

I am sure this job gives me the opportunity to be creative.

I do appreciate your time taken to review my cover letter.

Enclosed you will find my CV. I look forward to your reply.

Yours sincerely: Robert Wilson
